Week #13: TOLL ROAD

GOAL: TO UNDERSTAND PATTERNS OF SINFULLNESS IN OUR LIVES

QUOTES: “For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. He committed no sin, no guile was found on his lips... He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.” 1 Peter 2:21-25

“My sin is what put Him on the cross.” ~Any one of us

“And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment.” John 16:8

“Anyone seeing this film—believer and unbeliever alike—will be forced to confront the central mystery of Christ’s passion, indeed of Christianity itself: If this is the remedy, what must the harm have been?”

~Father Augustine Di Noia, undersecretary of the doctrinal congregation in an interview about The Passion of the Christ

QUESTIONS for reflection/discussion:

1. If God showed me a movie of my life, what would it look like?
2. Have I ever considered that my sins were what caused Jesus to be crucified?

For this week: Attend the showing of The Passion of the Christ at 7 pm in the Church tonight (Sunday).

If you’re not able to attend, take time to watch The Passion of the Christ and be attentive to what the Lord is stirring in your heart.

Through Holy Week let the Holy Spirit guide you through examining your life to uncover patterns of sinfulness.

Begin by offering this time of prayer to God and inviting Jesus to be present with you.

The toll road ticket is a tool to begin with by praying through each segment and allowing the Holy Spirit to shine a light on each instance of sin in your life.

If an instance arises that you did not confess,
note it down for your next confession.

The list is not exhaustive but a beginning to uncovering areas of sin in your life and recognizing that Jesus has paid the price for your sin out of love.
