Half and Half from Msgr. Gary Smetanka

I hope you are enjoying these wonderful days of summer. It has been a bit crazy weather wise, especially with air quality alerts we have had the past month and the other extreme weather swings. Nonetheless, summer is also about taking extra time for enjoying the beauty of all creation given to us by God. It is about doing some things we can't do during winter, especially here in Michigan! It certainly should give us some extra time to think, reflect and pray as well. That is what I always hope for during summer days. Generally speaking, I think summer is a time for a bit of renewal, especially in our area of the land where we experience the four seasons. The extra recreation we can enjoy gives us the opportunity to clear the mind, see the beauty of God's creation, and sometimes just let the mind do nothing. Not surprisingly, it is most often during those times that our creativity is most active in our minds!

I will be taking that time to enjoy some of God's creation this week. For this week, and another later in the month, we will not have morning Mass here. This has not happened for a few years because Fr. Brian Meldrum was living here for the summer with his continued studies. Now that he has graduated and completed that phase of his life, he has been assigned this summer as the administrator of Cabrini parish in Allen Park while the pastor is on a sabbatical. Within our family, St. Joan of Arc does have a new priest on board, but Msgr. Bugarin is still limited in his capabilities of steps and walking, etc. Some people are under the belief that it is the job of priests to go around and say Mass whenever, even many times a day, and wherever. That is not the case. Priests are to say one Mass a day, two if pastorally necessary (e.g., a funeral), and only three with permission (e.g., Christmas, Easter). So, for this week, I encourage participation in Mass with our Family of Parishes or next door at St. Paul.

A few weeks ago, I participated in the Missionary Renewal Assembly for the Archdiocese of Detroit. This was helpful for us priests, and other staff members, concerning the Family of Parishes. It gave us an opportunity to focus a bit more on our Family of Parishes (St. Joan of Arc, St. Lucy, St. Veronica, and St. Basil).

* Please keep in mind our Outdoor Rosary (weather permitting) at the Rosary Garden (on Morningside) at 7:00 pm to pray the rosary as a family. It is also an opportunity to invite other family members and neighbors, to join us!

* Next weekend, the Pallottine Fathers will be here as part of the Missionary Cooperative Plan within the Archdiocese of Detroit.

* Don't forget to say some prayers for an increase in priestly vocations this week!

Enjoy the blessings of the Lord this week.

Msgr. Gary Smetanka

Stewardship Thoughts

In today's Gospel from St. Matthew, Jesus declares, Come to Me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. He also inspires us to follow His example of humility as foretold in the Scripture passage from the Book of the Prophet Zechariah. In his Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us that the Spirit of God dwells in us. These encouraging words comfort Christian disciples during difficult times. As we invoke a spirit of evangelization by expressing our stewardship of God's gifts in prayer, service, and generosity, we strive to put full faith and trust in our Lord, Jesus Christ. Strengthen your trust in our Lord and Savior by learning to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and reciting it daily with your rosary.

Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish presents the “ASK Program” featuring the novel:
A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory
by Michael Norton

An out of this world page-turner novel and a life-changing read

Read the book then join us for an afternoon with the author
Sunday, September 24th at 12:30 pm, in The Pointe

As we continue to age, many of us can't help but think of the next stage of our spiritual journey: heaven, purgatory, or the other place. One of my favorite reads for 2023 is Michael Norton's A Hiker's Guide to Purgatory. The protagonist, an attorney Dan Geary, at the age of 77, finds himself no longer on this earth, but in a setting much like being in a national park surrounded by flowering hills, glistening streams and far off majestic snowcapped mountains. Having no trails to follow, but plenty of time to figure it all out, Dan finds that each day is a new adventure which eventually leads him to his final goal. Through this believable character who has not yet reached heaven, the reader is invited to ponder the experiences of regret, contrition and forgiveness while realizing how much he is loved by God. Please join us for a unique and blessed conversation with the author. Books are available for purchase at the Parish Office or from book sources everywhere. For more information, please contact Ray Kettel (313-680-9890).

Coming Soon! Fall 2023 Adult Faith Study
What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe? Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and the richness of the Catholic Church. Written and presented by Marcellino D'Ambrosio and Andrew and Sarah Swafford, What We Believe: The Beauty of the Catholic Faith was filmed on location in Rome. In it you will discover:

- What Catholics truly believe
- Who Catholics truly are and how we are called to live
- The blessings of Creation, redemption, and newness of life in the Holy Spirit
- The profound gift of the sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist, the source and summit of our Faith
- How to imitate Christ through prayer, through personal conversion, and through love for others

This study will meet on Thursdays from 9:30-11 AM in the Parish Office or 7-8:30 PM in The Pointe.

To register for the study, please contact Meredith Nesom at m.nesom@stargp.org - or- (313) 884-7407

Saint of the Week

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680)

July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Osseron to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel?
