4. Activity
Put the Bible Stories in Order Parents: We have been learning a lot of Bible stories this year. They all have a part to play in the story of salvation! Let's play a game with these stories and remember what they mean to us. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Write the stories listed above for review on pieces of paper (without the page numbers)2. Mix them up.3. See if your student can put them in the correct order.4. The stories we have been learning connect us from creation to the resurrection. Talk about the significance the stories point to. We have listed one main point below. You may come up with more. Creation: God created us out of His Love Noah: Being saved through water points to baptism Joseph: Points to forgiveness and mercy Moses: Points to trusting God even when we're afraid The Ten Commandments: Shows how rules keep us safe and happy The Birth of Jesus: Points to God keeping His promise to send a savior The Parable of the Sower: How we have to be open to being good soil for the Word of God The Prodigal Son: Shows the father's merciful heart Holy Week: Shows how God saves His people through Jesus' death and resurrection

Discussion Questions

1. All these stories we have learned have something to teach us about God's love for us. Which story is your favorite?
2. How is Jesus the hero of your life? Can you think of specific examples?
3. How do YOU fit into the story of salvation? What can you do to be the hero?

5. Closing

As a family, discuss your current prayer intentions and take a moment to pray together.
