

God's spirit shines through in people like you.

"Thank you for your generous gift of time and prayer shawls for our patients. You make a difference in their last days of life. You bring warmth to their chilly days, add a bit of joy to their sad time and make them feel loved when they are alone. You will never know the full effect your gift has had on our patient but just know it did make a difference." (hospice home health care)

"Thank you so very much for the beautiful prayer shawls. The smile and glow on our patient's faces when they receive one speaks millions." (cancer care clinic)

"Thank you for the beautiful prayer shawl. I read the card to him and when he saw the shawl he was amazed by it. To keep him at peace I placed it by his head so he could feel the prayers. I now use it for comfort." (cancer patient/widow)

"As I recover, I still have pain and some impatience. It is at those times the prayer shawl brings me the warmth and promise of God's love and His healing. I am very grateful for this comfort." (surgery patient)

"Thank you for all that you do for those who receive the beautiful prayer shawls. I would wear it around my shoulders at home and in the hospital. It would not only keep me warm but the significance of the prayers and concern of those who make these shawls wrapped me in the warmth of that love and of the Lord holding me in his arms as well." (medical patient)

"Although we haven't met, you have touched me with your prayers and your generous heart. I am a fortunate recipient of a prayer shawl made by your hands. The colors are beautiful and the soft touch is a reminder of God's healing touch – a gentle warmth." (surgery patient)

"Thank you for my prayer shawl. I sleep with it every night and love it." (child)

I do feel God's love and warmth when I wear the shawl. God does hear our prayers as I am healing. How fortunate I am that God brought you in my life." (cancer patient)
